CHAIRMAN CARTER RE-ELECTED. LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 10.—The national Republican committee met here today and elected Thomas H. Carter chairman and Joseph H. Manley secretary, according to the program made up at the caucus last night. After a four hours' session the committee adjourned. The muchtalked of trouble regarding Mr. Carter's right to the office of chairman was ing.

A resolution, which had been prepared in the caucus, was then offered by Powell Clayton of Arkansas, It approved the action of the executive committee in New York, in making Mr. Carter temporary chairman, and elected him permanent chairman, and also resolved that the executive committee and its officers selected in New York last July should be continued in office. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Carter was then called back and the New England, southern and Pacific states. In California the condition has advanced 10 points, while in the principal wheat-producing states there has been considerable deterioration. In Kansas, Coloraco and Nebraska, where planting was backward and germination slow owing to continued drouth, and where much of the plant was winter killed, large areas have been plowed up and devoted to other crops. The same has been done in Missouri, Indiana and Illinois, where the plant was badly winter-killed and greatly Missouri, Indiana and Illinois, where the plant was badly winter-killed and greatly damaged by continued wet weather. In Michigan the severity of the winter greatly damaged the plant, and the weather since has been too cold and backward to admit of recuperation. Damage from the Hesian fly in counties later in the states of Indiana and Ohio is reported, and from chintz-bugs in Kansas. In some of the principal wheat states the plant on the uplands is teported in good condition, while in the lower and undrained lands the conditions are poor and much of the crop has been destroyed.

Washington, May 10.—The special session of the supreme court today to hear arguments upon the constitutionality of the Geary Chinese exclusion act, upon appeal from the judgment of the United States circuit court for the Southern district of New York, attracted an attendance that more than exhausted the limited accommedations of the court room. contended that these course could not be described from the Chinese exclusion cases, that the Geary act had not for its purpose the deportation of Chinese laborers, but to provide a system of registration and identification, which is a lawful purpose and has never been disputed. The methods were lawful and the act reasonable and humane.

J. H. Ashton of Washington concluded the argument. He argued that the question presented to the court concerned the fundamental principles of American counstitutional liberty, the rights to freedom, property and the pursuit of happiness of many thousands of persons living and laboring long and peaceably under the protection of the constitution and laws of this land, as well as the triendly international relations between the United States and China, and the welfare of American cutzeos and American interests in that great emptre.

THE DUTY OF THE BANKS. WASHINGTON, May 16-At a banquet conight in honor of the new comptroller of the currency. Mr. Eckels, in speaking of the national banking system, said, in part: the national banking system, and, in part:

"I beffeve that upon every national bank is placed the moral obligation to hold itself in readiness to assist the officers of the government in times of distress in maintaining the nation's credit. The bankers of this country can ill afford to place themselves in the attitude of looking with indifference upon the anxiety of the financial representatives of the treasury, when the financial integrity of the government is threatened."

BLOUNT MINISTER TO HAWAII. Washington, May 10.—The president bas appointed James H. Blount of Georgia as envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to the Hawaiiau islands, to succeed John L. Stevens. It is understood success John I, Stevens, it is understood that the appointment was decided upon at yesterday's cabinet meeting. A report from Mr. Blount, mailed at Houselain during the last week in April, came to Secretary Gresham yesterday morning, and was taken by him to the cabinet meeting. Owing to the confidential character of the report, its contents are kept secret, but it is presumed that it contained such information that the president determined to lose no time in commissioning the new lose no time in commissioning the new minister to succeed Mr. Stevens.

THE REPUBLICAN LEAGUE. LOUISVILLE, May 10.—The National Republican league met in annual session this morning in Macauley's opera house. Many ladies were present, and their bright costumes added to the beauty of the deorations of the auditorium. President Clarkson called the convention to order at H o'clock, and Rev. Dr. Heywood offered prayer. At the close of the prayer Mrs. J. Elleo Foster was ushered upon the stage, and her presence was greeted with a storm of appliance. Mayor Tiler welcomed the delegates in behalf of the city, and President Crawford of the Kentucky state league welcomed the delegates in behalf of the state. After other welcoming speeches Mr. Clarkson responded.

Mr. Clarkson said that the league met today in the name of the Republicanism of Lincoln, Grant and Blaine—a Republicanism whose eternal word was liberty. It was fighting Republicanism, and all men loved a party that had the courage to fight for its principles. In formulating those principles, Mr. Clarkson arged the league to make the plutform so broad that any man, native or foreign born, may find a welcome place in the Republican ranks. Then would begin a march which would lead to victory in 1896. He had no spology to make for the deleast of a year age. of the state. After other welcoming
